Cumberland Mayor Rod Gilroy speaks to the crowd during official re-opening of the Eatonville Three Sisters Centre. During its decade-long closure, Cumberland was instrumental and worked hard to get the facility repurposed in a way it could become the strong asset and lure envisioned when it was constructed in 2009, but closed in 2013 due to water damage and maintenance costs. (Lawrence R Nicoll Photo)

This photo showing a portion of the official opening attendees and the grandeur of the spacious interior. Now operated by UNESCO's Cliffs of Fundy GeoPark, after being idle for a decade, it is without a doubt the largest and most modern tourism-oriented facility in Cumberland-Colchester. # Yorke Ball Tournament 2026

By Lawrence R Nicoll

Another successful tournament in Parrsboro weekend of July 25- 26. Weather was perfect and action filled the two days. Lots of spectators to cheer on their teams, and a little one to enjoy the day while keeping hydrated. (Ball photos by Lawrence R Nicoll)
